ORDER

By order dated September 11, 2024, the Court directed the parties to file a joint letter and proposed case management plan by January 9, 2025. ECF No. 7. The parties did not do so. Accordingly, on January 10, 2025, the Court ordered the parties to file their joint letter and proposed case management plan by January 23, 2025. ECF No. 24. Again, the parties did not do so. Instead, Defendants—with Plaintiff’s apparent consent—filed a motion to stay discovery pending the Court’s resolution of Defendants’ motion to dismiss, which is not yet fully briefed. ECF No. 29; see ECF No. 25.

Pursuant to the Court’s initial pretrial scheduling order, the parties were to use this Court’s form proposed civil case management plan and scheduling order to create their proposed case management plan. ECF No. 7 at 2. That form states, in bold text, “The Court will not stay discovery pending its decision on any motion.” See Civil Case Management and Scheduling Order (June 25, 2019), <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-analisa-torres>.

Accordingly, Defendants’ motion, ECF No. 29, is DENIED. By January 27, 2025, the parties shall file their joint letter and proposed case management plan.

SO ORDERED.
